RUSS DRIVEN BACK BY TURK ATTACKS

Slav Left Wing in Armenia Retreats More Than Twelve Miles.

MOSLEMS RECAPTURE TOWN OF MAMAKHATUM

Petrograd Admits Check, Saying Enemy Is Reinforced With Germans and Austrians.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 2, via London, 4:05 p.m.—The Russian repulse in Armenia in the face of a Turkish offensive, which compelled Grand Duke Nicholas' forces to retire from Mamakhatum, fifty miles west of Erzerum, has been followed by a further retirement of the Russian left wing for a distance of more than a dozen miles, according to an official statement issued today by the Turkish war office. The statement says:

"In the center, the enemy, after our attack against the left wing, completely abandoned his positions, retreating twenty kilometers. On our left wing, we repulsed a surprise attack which the enemy attempted."

Mamakhatum Recaptured.

"An offensive movement which we opened on the morning of May 30 from the general direction of Puzladers and Mamakhatum against Russian positions eight kilometers west, six kilometers south and eighteen kilometers southeast of Mamakhatum, along a front of thirty kilometers (twenty miles), was successful. The Russians were taken by surprise, and were compelled to retreat to the east and northeast without being able to offer serious resistance. We occupied Mamakhatum.

"A counter-offensive undertaken by the Russians from Tchoruk Anaf, on the left wing, failed after vigorous fighting with artillery, infantry and bombs.

"An enemy monitor and two torpedo boats shelled several undefended villages on the eastern part of Kesten Island (off the coast of Asia Minor). Some houses were slightly damaged and one civilian was killed."

Russians Admit Check.

PETROGRAD, June 2.—The past week has brought no noteworthy change in the position of the opposing forces in Asia Minor, but the Turks, heavily reinforced by Germans and Austrians, have, by executing a series of sharp thrusts at various points along the Russian line, succeeded in checking the Russian advance. The Turkish attacks have been directed against the main lines of the Russians beyond Trebizond and in the region of Baidur, Erzincan and Rivasdouna.

While not making permanent gains in any of these directions, the effect of the persistent drives has been to bring the Russian advance to a standstill, temporarily, at least.

The Turkish attempt to advance upon Karga-Bazar (between Erzerum and Diarbekr) evidently was conducted with the intent of dividing the two Russian groups operating beyond Erzerum and Mush. But the wedge which the Turks succeeded in driving into the line at this point could not be maintained before the Russian counter-attacks. Thus the Russian communications are still intact and the situation is unchanged.

The Turkish offensive, which has been the most energetic of all their efforts in this theater, now is considered to have spent itself without achieving any more definite result than that accomplished by previous opposition—the temporary delay at great cost of the Russian forces into Mesopotamia.

AUSTRIANS VIGOROUSLY RESUME OFFENSIVE

Attacks at Several Points Meet Sharp Repulse, According to Rome.

ROME, June 1, via Paris, June 2.—The Austrian offensive has been resumed with increased vigor, especially along the Posina river. The object of the Austrians is to surround Arasero, which would enable them to descend toward Schio. Confronted by stubborn resistance, the Austrians here have been compelled to retire back across the Posina, after suffering heavy losses. It is said that two Austrian generals were killed in the fighting in addition to a large number of other officers.

The heavy casualty list is attributable to the nature of the terrain, which consists of rugged peaks, gorges, precipitous and narrow valleys, where the making of shelter trenches is impossible.

Repulsed With Bayonet.

The latest war office communication follows:

"In the Lagarina valley there have been artillery duels. The enemy again attempted during the afternoon a surprise attack at Buole pass, which we repulsed with the bayonet. On the Pado river sector there has been artillery activity. Repeated enemy attacks in the direction of the Upper Forni were brilliantly repulsed by our Alpine troops.

"In the zone between the Posina and the upper Astico the violent artillery action continued yesterday. In the afternoon an enemy column having crossed the Posina torrent attacked in the direction of Monte Spiri. Their attack was arrested on the extreme northern slopes of that mountain.

Driven Back in Disorder.

"Another column advanced toward Santabudo, southeast of Arasero, but was beaten and driven back in disorder beyond the Posina. On the Settemonte there is strong enemy pressure against our wing positions at Monte Cengio and on the little valley of Compomulo.

"The situation in the Sugana valley is unchanged. On the Upper Ruti there has been the customary enemy artillery fire.

Along the Isento front our detachments continue their bold incursions, in one instance capturing a bomb thrower. On Tuesday and Wednesday our air squadrons raided the Asna valley, dropping bombs on camps and depots with effective results. The aviators returned safely."

The timber and other lands owned by the United States are a source of profit which is growing yearly.

In times of peace much of the light Maryland tobacco was exported to mix with the heavy German leaf.

A few weeks ago the prince visited Rome and then made a trip to the Italian front, where he was the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. BABY DEATHS DUE TO LOVE. Dr. Wiley Says Mother's Fondness Proves Fatal More Than Any Other

That mother's love is probably responsible for the deaths of more babies than any other single cause was asserted by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, food expert, in an address before the Cranch-Tyler Home and School Association yesterday afternoon, at a meeting at the Cranch School. Dr. Wiley said that the desire of the mother to protect the child frequently led her to overfeed and overclothe it.

He urged an abundance of fresh air for children. He also advocated a simple diet.

Mrs. Allan Davis, president of the association, spoke on the need for a playground for the Tyler School. Mrs. M. J. Feabody, principal of that school, stated that the provision for the playground had been stricken from the district appropriation bill by the House. Miss Mabel Church gave recitations.
